

Memorials

*Tributes to recently departed
SEAAPM members*

Henry C. Karp Sr.

1932 - 2011

Born in Easton, PA

USAF Electronics Technician

BS in Physical Sciences, ESTC, PA

MRH, Emory University, 1966

State of Georgia, Department of Public Health

Chief, X-Ray Control Section

Emory University

Director of Radiation Safety and RSO

Consultant and Valuable Resource

Extensive Experience, Practical, and Always Helpful

His Living Legacy

Stephen Karp, Medical Physicist at West Georgia Medical Center

Peter Karp, Oncology Physicist, Decatur General Hospital

Dr. Nasser Maleki, Ph.D.
January 25, 1953 - January 6, 2012

Dr. Nasser Maleki, Ph.D.

January 25, 1953 - January 6, 2012

- Born in Tehran
- BS in Physics at Shiraz University in Shiraz, Iran
- PhD in Physics from the University of Nebraska - Lincoln
- Post-doctoral fellowship in Medical Physics at the Joint Center for Radiation Therapy at Harvard Medical School
- Certified by the American Board of Radiology
- Joined the Memorial Health University Medical Center at the Curtis and Elizabeth Anderson Cancer Center in 1989 as the Director of Medical Radiation Physics which he held until December 2011
- Associate Professor of Medical Physics at Armstrong Atlantic State University and Georgia Tech
- Research interests on treatment planning and modification and use of linear accelerators for stereotactic radiosurgery